Martin M. Hardman

MURRAY—Martin Monroe Hardman, 74, passed away January 14, 1986 at a Salt lake Hospital.

Born March 2, 1911 Benchcreek, Utah to George R. and Lillie Mae Cluff Hardman. Married Mavis Pearson, October 7, 1943 in Evanston, Wyoming. He was a Veteran of World War II. Member of the LDS Church and worked in construction.

Survived by: Wife, Mavis, of Murray; children, David Layne, Randall, Mrs. Asgeir (Jeannine) Elnes, all Salt Lake City; Marty, of Fairbanks, Alaska; 13 grandchildren; sister and brothers, Nellie Hammerschmidt, of Roosevelt, Utah; Henry, of Sandy; Earl, of Heber City.

Graveside services will be held Friday, January 17, 11 a.m. at Redwood Memorial Estates 6500 So. Redwood Road. Funeral Directors, Memorial Estates Mortuary.

T 1/15 N3 1/15

Martin M. Hardman

MURRAY—Martin Monroe Hardman, 74, passed away January 14, 1986 at a Salt lake Hospital.

Born March 2, 1911 Benchcreek, Utah to George R. and Lillie Mae Cluff Hardman. Married Mavis Pearson, October 7, 1943 in Evanston, Wyoming. He was a Veteran of World War II. Member of the LDS Church and worked in construction.

Survived by: Wife, Mavis, of Murray; children, David Layne, Randall, Mrs. Asgeir (Jeannine) Elnes, all Salt Lake City; Marty, of Fairbanks, Alaska; 13 grandchildren; sister and brothers, Nellie Hammerschmidt, of Roosevelt, Utah; Henry, of Sandy; Earl, of Heber City.

Graveside services will be held Friday, January 17, 11 a.m. at Redwood Memorial Estates 6500 So. Redwood Road. Funeral Directors, Memorial Estates Mortuary.

T 1/15 N3 1/15